Division Celebrations & Successes

- Pathways is becoming more accepted in the division and there are now some very dedicated member working to assist and help those less literate with accessing and learning the system.
- All area contests have been run and there was a good amount of participation from clubs –Well done to all those who represented, Thank you to those who organised and assisted. A special congratulations to those who were successful and will be competing at the division contest.
- The number of clubs with lower membership is decreasing. Under 15 members now 9 from 13.
- Arawa and Geyserland Toastmasters clubs have moved venue – Congratulations.

Division Challenges, Issues & Solutions

- Areas D1 and D8 are still without Area Directors.
  - Members have been contacted and a few leads followed up but no one as of yet is willing to take up the role.
- Tauranga-based club Katikati is looking to close its doors as membership has been waning for some time now.
