

DISTRICT 72 Immediate Past District Directors report October 2017

It has been a pleasure to watch the Quintet bond as a team while at the International Convention, and return to the District as a very tight unit. Considering the large number of District Trios suffering from internal conflict, it is great to observe such a cohesive leadership team.

They undertook their responsibility at the Convention of interviewing every candidate very seriously, and the hours taken during this process cannot be underestimated.

The District realignment committee has made great progress towards determining the shape of the new Divisions, and I have been impressed by the number of submissions that this committee has received. These are your Divisions, and it is important that as we move forwards into Reformation, we are a united District.

It is a pleasure to be able to support the new District Officers in their new roles, and I am always available if anyone should have any concerns.
