

We are almost at the end of the 2016-17 Toastmasters year, and it seems that all hands are on deck to finish the year on a high, with clubs across the country finalising their clubs Distinguished Club Programme (DCP) efforts and preparing to hand over to the 2017-18 committees. In line with this the District Officers are in the process of being trained and prepared to deliver a quality programme in the year ahead, commencing with Club Leadership Training in July and August throughout the country.

Contests

District International Speech Contest 2017
Winner – Joseph Fa’afiu (Pacific Toastmasters, H3)
Second – Marc Ramos (Naumai, Bell Block, B)
Third – Amy Edwards (Napier Toastmasters, D2)

Huge congratulations to Jeremy Clarke (Evaluation Speech) and Joseph Fa’afiu (International Speech) who took the District titles in their respective contests at the District Convention in Wellington in May. They headed home strong fields of Division representatives from throughout the country.

This is the culmination of several months of contests throughout the country, starting at club level in February and progressing through Area and Division contests to reach the District Final. Contests are a great way to challenge your skills and develop through participation. Well done to all Toastmasters who took up the challenge and competed this year. The humorous speech and table topics contests will be coming up soon, starting at club level in August, and I would encourage you all to take up the challenge.

Joseph Fa’afiu will be going on to represent New Zealand as the District 72 representative in the International Speech Contest on the world stage at Vancouver in August. All the best Joseph!

May 2017 District Convention – Turning Tides, Wellington

Wellington certainly turned it on for the Turning Tides District Convention in Wellington in May. International speakers were on hand to deliver educational and informational workshops and keynotes. Mohammed Al Qahtani, the World Champion of Public Speaking 2015 was there, along with David Fisher, the Region 12 International Director, Naomi Takeuchi, from the US, and several Australian representatives.

Of course, the District Speech Contests, the Annual Business Meeting and the Dine and Dance also added to what was a well run event, thanks to the efforts of Joy Ackrill, Owen Winter and the rest of the team who worked so hard to pull it all together.

A few learning experiences were identified with regards to the Friday workshop, some accessibility issues, placement of refreshments and District Supplies which have all been taken on board. However it was great to see that the overall reaction to the conference (from the survey sent out afterwards) was hugely positive and members appeared to thoroughly enjoy the event.

District Evaluation Speech Contest 2017
Winner – Jeremy Clarke (Central Park Club, H4)
Second – Jilnaught Wong (Auckland TM Club, A1)
Third – Grant McNeill (High Noon Nelson, G5)

A Huge “Thank you”...

Pathways

Over the past year many of you will have heard of the Toastmasters Pathways Learning Experience (aka Pathways), which is a major change to the Toastmasters Education Programme. This is an exciting project that is likely to be introduced throughout New Zealand in the 2017-18 Toastmasters year.

At this stage the global introduction is still in the pilot phase and the rollout has been delayed by 6 months. It is anticipated that we, in New Zealand, will start introducing this programme at some stage in early 2018. At this point, however, it is business as usual with the current educational programme.

Much work in the background has been done to prepare for the project in our District and Pathways Guides have been identified, who will assist clubs in understanding and implementing the Pathways programme once we get the go ahead from Toastmasters International. Pathways guides will commence their roles two months prior to the actual start of the rollout in New Zealand.
