Recommended Instructions:

It is recommended to read all instructions along with the full script prior to the Contest (ie, as soon as you are appointed to your Contest Chair Role). This script is a general guide so it is in editable format, so that you can amend it to suit your own personal style and language. Modify the flow of the script as appropriate for a multi-contest event at any level. Since some contestants are in more than one (1) contests, it is important that contestant interviews take place only after the last speech contest of the event.

Refer to Page 22-23 of the Contest Rulebook for the Contest Chair Checklist and Briefing notes. Chair the Contestants Briefing. Also obtain the speaking order, asking contestants how to pronounce their name. There is space provided within the text of this script to write in the speaking order and notes on pronunciation. Ask contestants to complete the Speakers Profile sheet (1189) for each contestant to aid in performing the contestant Interviews. Make sure contestants are not wearing name badges or designation pins (ie. DTM pin).

If you have a Hybrid Contest, you will need to adjust the below script to allow for Online Contestants add the following into the below script:

- Can the Tech people please move the Online Contestants to a Breakout room.
- Contestant Name: Can you see the timing lights, then....Can you please test your microphone

Remember when choosing your Table Topics:

The Topic is of general thematic nature, leading to an opinion or conclusion.

- Do not make it too long and keep it relatively simple, not complex.
- Have the topic written in such a way that it leads to an opinion or conclusion... for example: Poorly written Topic: Colours can be reflective of your mood. Do you think Black is a better colour or is white more preferable? Same Topic written better: "What colour is better – Black or white?"
- Print it clearly on a piece of paper, so that you can show it to the Contestant at the same time as reading the Topics. It is recommended to have all contestants leave the room, then read the Topic to the Audience so that the first speaker is treated the same as successive speakers and isn't given the sounds of the audience's surprise or laughter of the topic.

Give the Event MC any relevant information (if required) for your introduction as Contest Chair. Some examples are your club name, how long you have been a Toastmaster, and your Toastmaster education level and/or officer role, and maybe something humorous or exciting about yourself.

Brief the Sergeant at Arms.

Option 1: All Contestants leave the room whilst the topic is read to the audience for the first time.

Option 2: With the exception of the first speaker who will remain in the room, you will escort the remaining Table Topics contestants to an outside waiting area.

After the first speaker has answered the Table Topics question, and immediately after the 1 minute of silence begins, retrieve the next contestant from their room and have them in a ready position to the side of the speaking area until they are called by the Contest Chair to answer the Table Topics question. The contestant is to be reminded not to go onto the Speaking/Stage Area until invited by the Contest Chair.
